CAMP WITH HOST TROOPS BY TWOS

In a Sub-Camp, overseas Scouts will be assigned in pairs (2) to camp with Scouts of a Japanese host troop. Host Troops look after the overseas scouts. They cook, join various activities, perform routine service work and sleep as part of their host Japanese Troop. Leaders may stay or serve at the Headquarters of their assigned Sub-Camp.

Overseas contingents are requested to furnish the paired Scout name-list to the Scout Association of Japan by 30 April 2002.

FOOD AND COOKING

Jamboree food issues commence with lunch on 3 August, ending with lunch on 8 August with a total of 16 meals.

Overseas contingents may get supplementary rations, such as rice, bread, milk, tea and meat on request. Special dietary requirements are available on advance request. During the term before the rations are provided, overseas contingents will be provided meals at JHQ Dining Hall till breakfast on 3 August, in case their assigned Japanese host troop is not in the campsite.

EXHIBITION AT SCOUTING WORLD (Reply Slip Attached)

At the Programme Zone J (Maishima Arena), On-site Selective programme “K-1: Scouting World” will be set up. Scouting World could attract a large number of visitors and would do much to the furtherance understanding as well as friendship among Scouts of different nations, with the fullest cooperation by participating countries and territories in putting on the national display of their culture, history, Landscape, handcrafts, Scouting, etc.

Display space

Each contingent can be in principle with one booth sized 360cm X 360cm

Any designing of the display space is acceptable, according to the originality and type of exhibit items, which contingents will bring.

Suggested items on exhibit

- (1) Photos, posters, etc., showing culture, industries
- (2) Folk crafts, souvenirs, or other national products.
- (3) Information on national Scouting (posters, publications, badges, uniform, major events past and coming, etc)

Each contingent comprising separate area groups are requested to co-ordinate among themselves on the mounting of display at one booth. No political issues are acceptable.

Responsibility of contingent and Scout Association of Japan

National contingents or groups, which will exhibit their items at Scouting World should bring their items to the Jamboree site and report through Jamboree International Service Centre to responsible officials of the Programme Centre. They are requested to put on exhibit at their booth by 3 August. All expenses incurred for collecting and transporting the exhibit items are responsibility of each contingent or group.

The Scout Association of Japan will assist them in provide necessary helpers and materials for putting on the display at the booth.

RECEPTION FOR OVERSEAS CONTINGENTS

Welcome reception for overseas contingents/group to be hosted by Jamboree President, will be held on Sunday, 4 August at JHQ Dining Hall from 14:00–15:30. Contingent Leader of each Contingent will be invited to the Reception and each Contingent will receive Jamboree souvenir plaque.
